

COLD FACTS . . .

SLAUGHTER SALE GOING ON AT FARMER'S STORE

for thirty days in order to unload all kinds of summer goods. We have already sold over one thousand pairs of shoes at half price. We have a thousand pair more to go the same way. This is the chance in your life to buy a bargain in shoes.

200 Bolts of Good Calico go at 3 cts. You will not hear of anyone trying to match this price. Best L. L. Muslin 4 cents. Best Bed Ticking 10 cts. Good Lawn 4, 5, and 7½ cents.

As you know we buy stocks of goods under the hammer and sell accordingly. Save money by buying your Dry Goods, Shoes, Hats, Caps and Clothing of us

Yours for low prices;

Northeast Corner Square.

M. K. FARMER

LOCAL IN BRIEF.

T. E. Spencer left Tuesday for Iowa. Public Schools open Tuesday, Sept. 12th.

J. L. Terrell left Monday for his home at Edwardsville, Ill., Kan.

First shipment of fall dress goods just received at Wright's. 28

The Marshall Public Schools will open Tuesday the 12th of Sept.

The Institute adjourned Friday until Monday morning August 14th.

J. H. Franklin left Saturday for St. Louis and Chicago on a business trip.

Mr. and Mrs. John Buck, living south of town, have a very sick child.

J. H. Coddell from Arkansas arrived Sunday night for a visit to his family.

K. K. Mayer spent Sunday with friends at Sedalia, returning the same night.

Miss Mary Grecian is very sick with typhoid fever, at her home in Pleasanton.

Mrs. Aubrey Conway and sister Miss Helen have returned from a visit to Kansas City.

Mr. and Mrs. John Mahan will go to housekeeping this week in a cottage on Morgan St.

Mr. Brock, of Arrow Rock, was among the large crowd who shopped in Marshall Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. T. W. Hunter will leave this week for a two weeks' visit, part of which will be with Fulton friends, and relatives at Metropolis.

Philip King left Wednesday morning for Savannah, Mo., for a three weeks' vacation. Misses Alice and Uelia will follow in a few days.

Miss Gertie Brown entertained a number of friends Friday evening complimentary to her guests; Misses Louise and Eva Miller, of Miami, Miss Letta Hancock, of Blackburn, is visiting Miss Mary Bowers, of Sedalia.

Miss Agnes Spencer is spending the week with Miss Verda Northern at Mexico.

Try Rose & Buckner's Tailor if you want your last year's suit cleaned and pressed.

Mrs. C. F. Thompson left Wednesday for Kansas and Nebraska, for a visit to relatives.

Those $12.50 suits are going like the proverbial hot-cakes, at $10.00 Rose & Buckner.

There are 130 teachers enrolled at the Institute. Examinations began Wednesday.

Miss Nellie Hawkins, of Fairville, was a recent visitor at the Hupp home in Eastwood.

Miss Minnie Casebolt, of Miami, was the guest of the Misses Fisher on West street, Friday.

Ben Stricker returned Friday from McAllister, where he made a brief visit.

Harry Lee Bryant, of Salisbury, is here for a visit to his grandmother Bryant, on Oldell.

Miss Ida Lail will have charge of the Art Department at Mt. Valley College this coming year.

Have you seen those beautiful new black crepe, the latest wear in stripes, polka dots and figured goods, Beautiful selection at Wright's. 28

Misses Mabel and Ada Corbin, guests of Miss Annie Levin, were called to their home at Corder Friday on account of the illness of their mother.

S. T. Kincaid and wife and son, of Mountain Home, Idaho, are guests of the former's father, Wm. H. Kincaid, of this city. Mr. Kincaid has been in the Yukon District for two years and will return to Alaska in the fall.

Miss Nell Martin, who has been spending the summer at Colorado, is expected home this week.

Dr. and Mrs. D. P. Bell left Tuesday for Excelsior, where the doctor hopes to gain his strength.

Noble Brumagh has returned from an extended visit to Mr. James Brumagh's family at St. Louis.

Mr. and Mrs. F. C. McReynolds, of capitol Hill, are entertaining Miss Myrtle Logan of Lexington.

Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Wilson came down on the 19th & A train Tuesday morning on a short visit.

Mr. Clay Corder and wife, of Alma, spent Saturday in the city looking at property with a view of locating.

Arch Naylor and Harry Stricker with Misses Kate Embard and Okra Dyer spent Sunday at McAllister.

J. M. Patterson is enjoying his vacation with Mrs. M. V. Neet at Warrensburg and other relatives at Sedalia.

Miss Nellie Spencer is spending the time with Mrs. M. V. Dobyns during the absence of Mrs. W. B. Dobyns at colo.

Misses Louise and Eva Miller, of Miami, are spending the week with Miss Gertie Brown on East Arrow St.

One 10¢ photo are all the rage. Have yours taken before we leave, 2 weeks longer. East side square. 28

Mrs. W. L. Hancock and son Archie drove down from Blackburn Saturday and spent several days with Mrs. J. W. Sparks.

Messrs. A. Pocher, L. T. Hicks, H. F. Nichols and M. E. Crockett spent Friday at Wilton, where they enjoyed enough under the grand old shade trees of Wilton.

Mrs. D. J. Baker and daughter, of McLeonard, were in the city Saturday. Mrs. Baker is making arrangements to send her daughter, Miss Victoria to school at Florissant. Sept. 1st. Florissant is 16 miles from St. Louis.

R. W. Campbell returned Saturday from a pleasant visit of two weeks, with relatives at Dallas and Wells Point, Texas.

Mrs. W. B. Dobyns left Tuesday for Colorado where she will join the remainder of the party at Green Mountain Falls.

Miss Lillie Van Dyke left for Farmington Tuesday night, where she has accepted a position as matron of Elwood Seminary.

Sedalia people are making arrangements for a fine Fair and a big time generally the first week in September. Let Marshall follow suit and have a big Fair in October.

Rose & Buckner have made a wonderful improvement in their Store. They want to double their clothing business this fall. Certainly they have the stock to do it.

The handsomest dress goods ever brought to Marshall in small intricate checks in blue and black and brown and black and red and black, just received at Wright's. 28

Mr. G. S. Hanley, of Nelson, passed through Marshall Friday night enroute to Oklahoma, where he was called on account of the serious illness of his son Wm. S. Hanley, who is very low with typhoid fever.

Mr. V. V. Yantis is expecting to entertain quite a number of relatives this week at her delightful home up the city. She will have her sisters Mrs. Anderson, of Longwood, Mrs. Davis, of Blackhouse, and Jessie and Burlee Hall, of Columbia.

Mrs. A. Leonard and children, Margaret, Horace, Joseph and Speed, with Mrs. Malone and daughter Mittie of St. Louis, Mrs. J. S. M. Hart and daughter Mittie and Mrs. James Colvert and Margaret Schupp formed a pleasant party who spent Monday afternoon at Sulphur Springs 4 miles north of the city.